Day 1: Market & Cooking Class

➤ Morning Program

- Our private guide pick us up at the hotel to show how local people are in their buying habits.
- We'll go to the market, but not a simple one, we'll go to La Boqueria, The oldest: The first mention of the Boqueria Market appears in a document produced in 1217. The market has an iron roof made up of five identical parts with no perimeter enclosure. The main entrance consists of a Modernist arch built in 1913; It is an iron portal decorated with blue glass panels with yellow circles. It rests on two supports covered with Gaudi-style trencadís mosaic. On the upper part of the arch hangs an old coat of arms.
- After being delighted by the history of Barcelona and its buildings, you we will head to the cooking workshop, learning different cooking and presentation techniques and some other local tricks

HOTEL CRAM 4* (Barcelona)

Hotel Cram is situated in the middle of the Eixample district of Barcelona very close to the Paseo de Gracia, Rambla de Catalunya, Plaza de Catalunya and the Ramblas. Surrounded by the cities most emblematic architecture, the hotel fits perfectly into this rich legacy. The modernist style façade dates back to 1892, and has a definite majestic elegance.

The modernist style façade dates back to 1892, and has a definite majestic elegance, the interior while also not lacking in refinement is contrastingly modern, making hotel Cram a unique hotel in Barcelona.

The restaurant L'Angle Barcelona, 1* Michelin, opens its doors on June 2013, with the same philosophy and willingness to bring customers a dining experience which is sure to tantalise each one of their senses.
