- Our first day in Seville starts with an amazing tour through its markets. From the very beginning Seville was nerve center socially and economically in international trade. Since its inception Castilians were the three hallmarks of any medieval town: shops, market and annual fair. As for the markets, they were located around the Cathedral and towards the river. We will visit some of this markets and enjoy with some of the “tapas” that the local stores offers.
- It was in Andalusia where the TAPA (cover) concept was born back in the first half of the thirteenth century. Ancient tradition said which originally were called cover (tapa) so because it served to accompany an alcoholic-drink beer or wine - and whose vessel was plugged into its mouth by a small piece of bread with some piece of ham or cheese so that inside the container no dirt or insects could fall.

Summary

CORDOBA: NH AMISTAD 4*

Located in the historic heart of the city, next to an early 14th century synagogue and just five minutes from perhaps the most important edifice of our city: La Mezquita Cathedral, representing a singular cultural and religious symbol in Córdoba as well as the most significant monument of Al-Andalus.

SEVILLA: CASA NUMERO 7 4*

Our small luxury hotel is located in the former Jewish quarter of Seville's Santa Cruz neighbourhood and close to tourists's favourite sites, shopping, bars, and restaurants. Despite this, Casa N° 7 Hotel still manages to remain an elegant oasis within the bustling centre of Andalusia's capital. Built in 1847 as a private residence, our Hotel has an intimacy that retains all the individuality of a private home.

PUERTO SANTA MARIA (CADIZ) : PALACIO DE SANTA MARIA 4*

In the historic center of El Puerto de Santa Maria, it has been rescued from the ruins after five years of effort and dedication by a large group of artisans and professionals. This landmark Palace was the recipient of this group's meticulous attention to detail required to preserve the nobility and the true essence of one of the few restored palaces of the City
