FACTS

- We have to go back no more than 2,000 years to find the first reference to winemaking in the zone: a Roman mosaic of 66 square metres, considered the largest piece bearing Bacchic allegories of the Peninsula, that was discovered in Baños de Valdearados during the grape harvest of 1972.
- The region has produced wine for over 2000 years with proof lying in local Roman ruins. It produced the wine of kings and more recently the area has cultivated the grapes and conditions needed to create one of the world's most prestigious wines, Vega Sicilia, as well as classics like Pesquera and Pingus
- Surface: 20.905 has
- Main Grapes:
 - Red wines: Tempranillo (min75%, Garnacha, Cabernet Savignon)
 - White wines: Albillo
